Directions: This survey asks you to think about some of the things you do in school. You need to read each sentence and circle the word that best describes what you do. The possible answers are Not At All Like Me, Not Much Like Me, Somewhat Like Me, or Almost Always Like Me. Other children may have a different answer than yours. Do the best you can. There are no right or wrong answers. Read all of the directions.

For example, the first sentence is, "I like ice cream."

I like ice cream.	Not At All Like Me	Not Much Like Me	Somewhat Like Me	Almost Always Like Me
-------------------	-----------------------	---------------------	---------------------	--------------------------

If you don't like ice cream, you should circle "Not At All Like Me."

If you do not eat ice cream very often, you should circle "Not Much Like Me."

If you usually like to eat ice cream, but might not choose to eat it all of the time, you should circle "Somewhat Like Me."

If you like to eat ice cream for dessert most of the time, you should circle "Almost Always Like Me."

Read each sentence carefully and circle the answer that is most like you.
